

Mayor's Arts Awards 2020 Nomination Form

For over a decade, the Mayor's Arts Awards has honored those working in the arts by recognizing the contributions of Southwest Louisiana's creative workers, patrons, and artists to the region's culture. This year will be adjusted to accommodate COVID-19 safety precautions. Arts Council representatives and Mayor Nic Hunter will present the awards to the recipient in a private ceremony. The ceremony will then be shared on social media. Deadline to submit nominations is Friday, November 13, 2020 via email. Nominators are allowed to submit nominations in more than one category. All nominators will be contacted no later than November 25 regarding status of nomination.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Artist of the Year: An artist who shows tremendous skill and talent in their discipline and uses their talents to better his or her community. All disciplines and levels of experience are eligible.

Citizen of the Arts: An individual or group that has gone above and beyond to support, develop, and promote the arts in the area and its artists, programs, events, and initiatives.

Citizen of the Humanities: An individual or group that has dedicated itself to preserving and enriching the region's culture and history.

Patron of the Year: An area business or corporation that has invested itself in the area's cultural economy through sponsorships, partnerships, and/or a commitment to improving the region's quality of life through the arts.

Arts Organization of the Year: An arts organization that has generated a tangible impact on the region's residents, tourists, youth, and businesses with innovative programs, progressive outreach efforts, and an exemplary creative vision.

Arts Educator of the Year: An area educator who has provided his or her students with an inspiring, engaging, and diverse education in the arts and who has encouraged and cultivated creative expression within curriculum.

Keystone Award: Named for the supportive piece in an archway, the Keystone Award is given to an individual who is often found behind the scenes and has invested countless hours to produce area arts events and programs.

Nominations should be emailed to Devan Corbello at devanc@artscouncilswla.org by November 13, 2020
