CALCASIEU PARISH POLICE JURY GRANT PROGRAM

The purpose of the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program is to provide a system of funding for arts and cultural projects and organizations throughout Calcasieu Parish. Funded annually by the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury, this grant program ensures a high quality of programming and events for the area to encourage the continued growth of the arts in our community through a competitive grant process. As applicants compete only with other organizations in the parish, decisions about cultural priorities are made locally.

Mission

The Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program aims to make the arts more readily available by providing local artists, nonprofit organizations, and community groups the opportunity to develop arts programs that meet local community needs.

Policies

The Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program is designed to:

- Expand efforts to make the arts more accessible in Calcasieu Parish;
- Award grants to organizations located in the parish (Calcasieu) for which funds are designated.

Goals

The goals of the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program are to:

- Strengthen arts organizations;
- Encourage professional artists to undertake projects that have meaningful community involvement and build audiences for the arts;
- Encourage a variety of nonprofit organizations to sponsor arts and cultural activities including classical, contemporary, and traditional arts in eight disciplines;
- Leverage additional local support for the arts;
- Provide arts activities to groups which have had limited arts experiences;
- Provide funding for the arts and cultural activities that are open to the public;
- Introduce the grants process and develop grant writing skills.

WHAT TYPES OF GRANTS ARE AVAILABLE?

Eligible organizations may apply for one Project Assistance grant for a specific arts project.

➤ Project Assistance

- Grant request is $500 minimum and $5000 maximum per application.
- Provides funding for a specific project on one or more single or recurring dates. Up to 100% of eligible expenses.

To encourage diversity among grant applications, no more than fifteen percent (15%) of the total re-grant amount to be distributed by the Arts & Humanities Council shall be allocated toward any number of projects with similar nature or theme.

No cash or in-kind match is required; however, a match demonstrates community involvement in and commitment to the project and is taken into consideration by the community review panels.

- Bonus points will be awarded to applications with matching funds equaling fifty percent (50%) or more of the total amount requested on the application.

Given the competitive nature of the grants process and the number of applicants, it is likely applications will not be fully funded, if at all. It is important to consider additional sources of funding.

PREPARING THE GRANT APPLICATION

Planning the Proposal

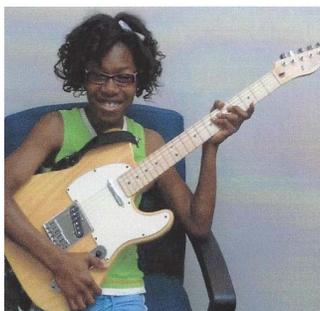

1. Review the mission, goals and yearly work plan for your organization. Would it be in the public interest for partnership funds to support your work?
2. Review the intent of the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program. Is this a logical funding source for your organization?
3. Think about the needs of the parish. How is your project meeting a need? Does the project involve your community? If so, find concrete ways to demonstrate this, such as letters of support to document community support and collaboration.
4. Be realistic and specific in your plans. Talk to people you want involved in your project before you begin writing. Do they want or need the services your project offers?
5. Involve your community in the planning of the project. Who will benefit from this project? What are the concrete anticipated outcomes?
6. Assess - realistically - the costs, personnel needs, and time requirements for your project.
7. Plan for ways to revise the project but still accomplish it if it receives partial funding.
8. Talk to staff at the Arts & Humanities Council office.
9. Read the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program guidelines again. Always ask questions if in doubt.

Following Instructions

1. Review the evaluation criteria for the grant. Keep it in front of you when you are writing the narrative.
2. Be sure to answer the questions asked in a clear and concise manner.
3. Try not to repeat information from section to section; instead, use this space to denote as many of the wonderful things your organization/event plans to fulfill with the monies.
4. Observe length restrictions, type font and size, rules about attachments, etc.
5. Include all required documentation (board of directors list, IRS letter, etc.)
6. Formulate a realistic budget that includes all revenue and expenses for your project. Call with questions.

Writing

1. Be specific. Assume that the reader knows nothing about your organization or project except what is presented in the application. Use facts and not necessarily opinions. Present concrete plans, specific goals and evidence of adequate research and planning.
2. Avoid using too much jargon. Write in simple, clear language.
3. Be consistent. The budget, narrative, and provider of service forms should all relate.
4. Have people who know nothing about your project read your draft. Does it make sense to them? Then have people who were involved in the planning read it. Does the description reflect the intent of your organization? Does it address the evaluation criteria?
5. Rewrite. Proofread, proofread, and proofread!

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

All applicants must be domiciled within Calcasieu Parish. Applicants may not apply for projects that will occur outside of Calcasieu Parish. The official domicile is the applying organization's official address registered Louisiana Secretary of State and is indicated on the Certificate of Incorporation. Please note that supplementals must also be submitted electronically, via email, along with the application.

HOW ARE FUNDING DECISIONS MADE?

After the April 12, 2023 deadline, the Arts & Humanities Council receives the application, determines that the applicant and the proposal are eligible for funding, and that the application complies with grant guidelines. A community review panel reflecting the area's ethnic, demographic and geographic diversity and the artistic and administrative expertise needed to evaluate applications will then be convened to review the applications (typically 2-3 weeks later.)

Although the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury funds this grant annually, the Police Jurors and staff are in no way involved in any part of the grant process; nor do they provide any input or recommendations regarding applications and/or funding decisions of the grant applicants.

To avoid conflicts of interest, Arts & Humanities Council board members and employees, applicant employees, as well as paid providers of service on applicant organizations will not be chosen to serve as panel members. Board members or volunteers of applicants may serve, but must recuse themselves by physically leaving the room when those applicants are discussed and scored. Other reasons for recusals include: a panelist's immediate family belonging to a board or the panelist having another close affiliation or potential bias regarding an applicant organization.

To encourage diversity amongst grant applications funded by the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury's Cultural Grant, not more than fifteen percent (15%) of the total re-grant amount to be distributed by the Arts & Humanities Council shall be allocated toward any number of programs with similar nature or theme.

Once the panel has met, applicants may call the granting agency to find out the recommended funding level and panel comments. Applicants not recommended for funding or recommended for reduced funding may appeal the funding recommendation by submitting a written appeal to the Arts & Humanities Council. For an application to be considered for appeal, the organization must submit a letter justifying the appeal. Such requests must contain a justification indicating that the decision against funding the project was based upon insufficient or incorrect information resulting from an issue other than the fault of the applicant.

Submitting an incomplete application is not grounds for appeal. Information not provided in the original grant application will not be considered as grounds for appeal. Recommendations by the panel to not fund an application or recommendations for partial funding are not grounds for appeal. The date that the funding recommendation will be available, and the appeal deadline will be included in the letter notifying applicants that their application has been received. Once the appeals have been reviewed, the Arts & Humanities Council Board of Directors will be presented with the recommendations of the panel for final approval.

WHAT DO I DO IF I'M FUNDED?

Contract and Payment Requirements

Congratulations! You will enter into a contract with the Arts & Humanities Council. Applicants who receive partial funding should be prepared to revise the plan and budget accordingly. Once the contract has been signed and approved by all parties, you will be eligible to receive your first payment of 75% of your grant award.

If at any time you are unable to complete the project, programs, or services for which you are funded, immediately contact Executive Director Shawna Nile Batchelor at the Arts & Humanities Council: shawnab@artscouncilswla.org

Final Report Requirements

During your project, you are responsible for keeping track of information and financial information related to your project, programs, or services for which you received grant money. You must keep copies of all receipts, invoices, check numbers, and cancelled checks.

In addition to financial and budget tracking, you will also be responsible for keeping track of Performance Indicators (evaluation tools used to determine the effectiveness of your project, programs or services and to evaluate the use of grant funding.) This information will be compiled at the end of your project or the end of the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program fiscal year in the final report. No payments will be made without applicable documentation. Final report forms and instructions can be picked up at the Arts & Humanities Council office and are made available online at www.artscouncilswla.org after funding decisions are made.

The final report documents the programs or services provided by your organization. Information in the final report compares the original information contained in your application with what actually happened as a result of your project, programs, or services. We want to know what worked and what didn't work; how many people benefited; what were the results? What was the intent of the project and was it achieved? Keep in mind the goals of the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Grant Program and the appropriate evaluation criteria.

Once you have submitted the final report with all required documentation and it has been approved, you will receive the final 25% of your grant award. Final reports must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after completion of project or by June 1, 2023 May 31, 2023, whichever comes first.
